Hiroshima University English Camp

October 30-31, 1999 (Sat/Sun)
Mount Noro (Near Higashi Hiroshima)

- Play Games using English
- Improve Your Speaking and Listening Skills
- Learn about Foreign Countries and Cultures
- Make Friends

Wanted: 25 Hiroshima University students, office workers, or faculty members who have good English language ability, and want to improve their English skills even more.

Activities: We will speak only English together from Saturday morning until returning Sunday. Enjoyable language games are planned. There will be at least three native English speakers attending. We will camp overnight in tents.

Apply: Application forms are available at each faculty office. Return the form to the Institute for Foreign Language Research and Education, J203 (Souka Building), by 4 p.m. Monday, October 25. Students will be selected according to their past English language achievements, and motivational levels. Student numbers of chosen participants will be posted on the bulletin boards of each faculty by noon, Wednesday, October 19. There will be one organizational meeting on Wednesday, October 27 from 16:45 to 17:15 in Room K201. Chosen students MUST attend this meeting, or at least get prior permission from Professor Lauer to be absent. Food expenses will total about 3,000 yen. For more information, contact Lauer at:
